COOKIE POLICY

When you visit our websites, mobile sites or mobile apps, we collect your personal data for many different purposes through "cookies". With this policy we aim to offer you as much transparency as possible.

This policy has been created to explain to you what cookies are and how we use them. We also describe the different types of cookies we use and how you can change or delete them.

We hope that this policy will provide you with understandable information about the use of cookies and will also help you feel safe. Please feel free to contact us if you have any further questions.

This Cookie Policy may be amended at any time for revision purposes. To see when this Cookie Policy was revised, take a look at the "DATE" at the top of this page. Any changes to this Cookie Policy apply when we make the Cookie Policy available on or through our Site.

Please refer to the Protection of Personal Data and Privacy Policy for more information about your personal data collected through cookies.

What is a Cookie?

A browser cookie is a piece of data stored on your device that helps web sites and mobile applications remember information about you. Other technologies associated with your device, such as Internet storage and locator, may also be used for similar purposes. In this policy, we will call "Cookies" to discuss all other technologies.

For what purposes do we use cookies?

We use cookies to protect your data and account, identify the most popular features, count the number of entries on a page, improve user experience, keep our services secure, make our website more user-friendly, and tailor our website to your interests and needs, and engage in online behavioral advertising for our users. Cookies remember information about you in order to perform the functions mentioned above and help us to provide you with these services.

Types of cookies

We have listed the types of cookies we use on our website, mobile site and mobile applications below for you. Please refer to the Protection of Personal Data and Privacy Policy for more information about your personal data collected through cookies.

Main cookie types used in our web site

Session cookies (Session Cookies)	Session cookies are temporary cookies that are used during the visits of our visitors to the web site and are deleted after the browser is closed. The main purpose of using such cookies is to ensure the proper functioning of the web site during your visit. For instance; this type of cookie makes it possible for you to fill the online forms composed of more than one page.
Persistent cookies (Persistent Cookies)	Persistent cookies are the types of cookies used to increase the functionality of the web site and to provide a faster and better service to our visitors. This kind of cookies are used to remember your preferences and are stored on your device via browsers. Some types of persistent cookies may be used to provide you specific suggestions by considering your intended use of the web site. With the help of persistent cookies in the event that you visit our website again with the same device, it is checked whether there is a cookie created by our website on your device, and if you have, it is understood that you have visited the web site before and the content to be offered to you is determined accordingly and thus a better service is provided to you.

Cookies used in our web site

Analytical Cookies (Analytical Cookies)	With analytical cookies, it is possible to produce analytical results such as the number of visitors to the web site, the pages displayed on the web site, visit hours of the web site and scrolling movements of the web sites.

Managing cookies

Many Internet browsers are set to automatically accept cookies by default. The same applies when we make use of our website, mobile sites or mobile applications. If you want to remove existing cookies from your device, you can do so using your browser options. You can also block cookies from your browser settings if you don't want the future of cookies placed on your device.

If you remove or block the cookies we use, please note that our website, mobile site or mobile applications may have some impact on your user experience and may not be available any more. Unless you change your browser settings to block cookies, our system will place a cookie when you visit our site or click on a link in an email sent to you, even if you have already deleted our cookies.
